

Do not let the banks have their way regarding the "No Call List". The banks have too much control with all their fees and policies. Do not let them control the public's right to privacy in their own homes. If a consumer wants to contact the bank they can do so on their own. I do not want a bank selling my name to one of their "affiliates" so they can bother me.